Alone together, you aloud to yourself, your mouth moving O, your voice to those.

Echoes of O, unbound for moment, of O, of you.

I Lovers of Roissy

Lover one O for section of go Montsouris. Stroll together on of notice, one corner of intersection, of coming to blouse, no long gloves come over of identification compact, moves off slowly, not word to down of windows on both of on window off gloves, to or to: Your your; to out of: you also on too clothes your stockings roll down to above your, some, now, some trouble also around, though, stockings rolled down, to loose forth, your, off your, enough, to do from, opens: you shouldn't on your you on, of some sort of imitation cold: extraordinary sensation to to your.

Now your gloves on, moving along good, doesn't without moving or another word, nor to motionless, so exposed, so though roughly gloved, going God knows told to do or not to do, to cross or together, gloved on of, stops on lovely, front of some sort of home courtyard of one along Faubourg, some. Outside. Don't move, for collar of blouse, bow, unbuttons blouse, forward to fondle. No, groping for shoulder of off. Now, blouse, buttoned, of body, from to. Now you, you. You're to out go doorbell. Follow whoever opens door for you, do you're told, you about going come to, you don't obey, force you to. Your ? No, you no for your. You're, of course. Now along. Another version of more: young woman, lover unknown, lover to young woman, unknown who to young woman lover of going to stockings roll down, remove blindfold, would over to course would to should do, soon bound, to from hour, blindfold on, through one or two doors, blindfold removed, found alone room, for hour, or hour, or two hours, forever, door opened on, you could conventional, comfortable, room: on floor, not of four closets, door opened two women, two young women of out of some, long enough to conceal bodices, or hooked front, around shadow. Both wore close collar on, know point O's told to going to proceeded to of clothing clothes one of closets, not allowed to, one of those your, you're for hour took more hour, on, from crossing or together, front of covered from floor to mirror, unbroken, could open, to mirror, properly; halo of of rouged; generously also to furrow furrow, to hollows of into room mirror, another mirror to closely, told to down on ottoman, mirror, ottoman covered one of of bedroom window, looked out onto lovely, stopped, moon among clouds, no how long bedroom, or alone, or someone through peephole camouflaged, know two women, one other long robe, shoulders robe open, from down. One could robe on some sort of, covered exposed. O took of thongs, hood concealed network of also gloves, form of, told not to move ordered women to woman took of O's. Though on no way out of ordinary, enough to collar other woman. Both collar of of, so total no more of functioned automatically padlock closes, could opened only of of opposite lock, hallowed one to on, one to, for both collar so although not so to impossible to bond. So collar to told to, took on ottoman, over touching gloved over to would alone, sort of to through window door over, two women for bedroom, two together long to of collar over shoulders covered completely, opened, no of closed. One woman proceeded, opening doors, other followed, closing crossed, two rooms, into, four coffee long robes no O not to or lover among, for one of shone. Everyone stock two women front, out; women O blindfolded forward front of around four could could of logs. Two, two others to of Someone around, so around, of one of mouth on of other lost (supported by whose?), opened of would to down uncomfortable position, forbade to together pinioned forced to forward rock went to do. You've? No. No, of lover of, other voice on, you do from to, or to no good. You to your of O on of, probably order to to some pole or, someone protested to on spot. So down on ottoman, torso one of, holding both on into to second to force into narrower go, sobbing befouled blindfold, to floor, only to someone's mouth not

Ode for voice(s) and/or instrument(s) based upon Pauline Reage 's Story of O.

Voices, one per chapter, read the lines subvocally at a pace of reading silently with one' s eyes. Only O is released : quietly when at the beginning of a line, louder towards the end. The last O is sustained until the end of the line is reached.

(Accompanying) instruments, one per chapter, read O as a note or chord on a stave of words : played softly when at the beginning, louder towards the end, sustaining the last until the end of the line is reached.

Prononciation, intonation, key, pitch and levels, may be agreed upon prior to the event. A stave corresponds approximatively to one minute, the time one needs to read five lines of words with eyes only.

It should take 10 to 15 minutes for instrument and voice to release O from each page.
