word that I use

words that I misuse

words that I make

words that I mistake

neither here nor there

you are here now
and you ask yourself should I go there ?

so you go there

you are there now
and you ask yourself should I be here ?

one lonely breath

one lonely breath

I feel every day lonely
I feel every lonely day
I feel lonely every day
I lonely feel every day
Lonely I feel everyday

SCRIPT 1

It was Saturday of a bank holiday week end.

we met up after 7 years. there had been a short fling, wrong timing.

we spent the day together, then the evening then..... the inevitable.....right timing.....

he meant it.... I meant it....

In the morning I said; what have we done ? this is wrong !!!

In the morning he said; what have we done ? this is wrong. I have never done that to her.

She is coming back tomorrow.....Why hurting her ? I will not tell her..... shall we spend the day together ?

No I said reluctantly, go home now that night all alone the phone rings; Hell o Darling..... it was so wonderful. so magical....

you really are the woman of my dreams... and please do not feel guilty.. it was meant to happen.... and you know I feel so alone now.....

yes I replied..... Life is a lonely journey.....

then he said we are friends aren't we? can I phone you sometimes ?

SCRIPT 2

Sex is in the air, sex in the mind, sex is everywhere.

I am so scared to go to my parents for Christmas, my brother watches porno films all day long; it creates this kind of tension you know and this rewind button on the remote I cant help using it, to watch all these good bits again and again and again and again..... I cant help it.

I dont want to go home for christmas. I cant face it.

It has been 6 years since I have done anything.... you know..... but it is good, I rechannel my energies. it is like going to Soho it stimulates me. All these images hitting my retina they quickly transform into pure energy. That is why I go so often.

One day a dark thought occured to me while I was watching my father watching TV; I shall never never do it again and I will not allow anybody else either. and at 21 I decided to be unemployed for the rest of my life. All that because one day I looked into a mirror and I saw nothing, nothing at all.

you fench girls you understand these kind of things that 's why I'm telling you all that.

and you know when the man came in the movie it was more than a cupful.

Do you really understand everything I say ? every word ? are you sure ?

After all I dont know anything about your intellectual capacity ?

wanker !

kill me and watch me die
love me and watch me die

why did it happen ?
can it happen again ?

quelle empreinte aurais je laisse sur cette ville mystere.
ne suis je que poussiere ?

sometimes I watch helplessly life passing me by.

One afternoon around 3pm I met a broken fish on a beach in Barcelona
I covered it with my shadow while wondering
what a terrible fate
I wonder what will be mine.

MOTO ROTO

Doing it faking it
doing it faking it
communicate, educate
fabricate, emulate
move your ass

Bond by your dreams
Seconds, minutes, hours, days,
weeks, months, years decades
passing by.....
close your mouth
and move your ass

SPACE
AND

I have got the space

I have got the time

And

I have got language

What do I do now ?

I take time to explore language

I take language to measure time

I take time to measure space

Just give me some space

And a bit of time

Wait and see

Time

Time passing

I give you time

Give me your time

Give me time

To live

My time to live

My space and my time

Give me time to find my space

And I shall give you space to find time

for me
